

FROM GOOD HOMES

IF THE WIND BLOWS

(Music/Lyrics: Todd Sheaffer)

I left home in spring one time anxious for what I might find wound up broke in Carolina went to work on a tree farm

I met a girl on the planting line she was strong and she was kind she'd come down to Carolina runnin from a memory

sittin by the fireside we'd talk late into the night about the lessons of our lives how she learned hers and I learned mine she teamed hers in a broken home I learned mine alone

if the wind blows
you re gone
if the wind blows
you re gone

if the wind blows
you re gone
if the wind blows

who knows what you're gonna find when you aren't even tryin two stray dogs on the plantin row fell in love now we can't let go and now I got her and she's got me we got love and a bag of seed we re together. hey, and we don't mind if the foreman cuts it all down in time ya move a little further on down the line life is short, ya keep rollin

you re gone
if the wind blows
you're gone

you're gone
