

FROM GOOD HOMES

WIDE OPEN WIDE

(Music/Lyrics: Todd Sheaffer)

I said: let's go, move 'em out, whole world's waitin, andiamo, I swear to god last night I heard a beckon at my window sayin goodbye bedford, fat man so long if I tie ya to the roof tomorrow i'm gone, last night I heard a beckon at my window sayin,

wide open wide
wide open wide

they said: sit down, calm down, think about what it is you're sayin, you can't just do anything that you want to do, do you think you still get a shoeshine, shine your shoes throw a dime? wheat fields wavin a welcome sign? well, there's a street man walkin on dead bird shoes, blind zen horatio coughin up blues, sit down. pay the rent, we'll fill you full of coffee in the morning...

wide open wide

world's waitin, andiamo, I swear to god last night I heard a beckon at my window sayin goodbye bedford, fat man, so long tie your dreams to mud or glory, don't look back until the morning. . .

wide open wide

wide open wide
wide open wide
